

Student's Name:

Evaluator:

Score each category out of 5 (whole numbers only) according to the rubric criteria. A score of 5 should be rare. A presentation meeting all of the criteria below would be considered a superb presentation (top 90th-centile).

5- Superb; 4- More than adequate; 3- Adequate; 2- Less than adequate; 1- Deficient

Presentation	Appearance	Engagement	Creativity
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Presentation is clear and logical; good flow - Written components are concise, free of spelling or typographical error - Presentation is visually appealing (photos used, other media content) - Media used is effective and without distraction 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Any questions are answered appropriately - Demonstrates excellent knowledge of subject and related areas - Responses are professional - Student engages in dialogue with commenters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Exciting, effective methods of presentation are employed - Posting does not simply rely on one image to convey all details (e.g., a traditional poster)
Content/Science	Background and Logic	Results and Outcomes	Communication and Accessibility
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Goals of post/research are stated clearly and concisely - Content situated within broader discourse on issue; showed clear relevance - Background information provided is sufficient to provide context for research 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Results are presented in an effective, clear manner - Outcomes of research connect to background/context of research - Main takeaways of research are highlighted effectively 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Use of jargon is limited; someone not in the field could understand key information - Accessibility is considered: images use alt-text, captions where appropriate, suggested guidelines for post accessibility are incorporated as needed (see accessibility guidelines)

Category	Comments	Score /5
Appearance
Engagement Indicate no. of engagements (likes/retweets/comments):
Creativity
Background and Logic
Results and Outcomes
Communication and Accessibility
Overall
Overall Impression
Do you feel this thread/post is worthy of an award?
Total Score (35)		